2. Write a Précis based on the following passage and give a suitable title.

20

Some take no thought of the value of money until they have come to an end of it, and many do the same with their time. The hours are allowed to flow by unemployed and then, when life is fast waning they think that it is their duty to make wiser use of it. But the habit of listlessness may already have become confirmed and they are unable to break the bond with which they have permitted themselves to become bound. Lost wealth may be replaced by industry, lost knowledge by study, lost health by temperance and medicine but lost time is gone forever.

3. Compose a letter on any one of the following:

20

- a) Write a letter to the Chairman of the Municipal Corporation of your locality regarding the urgent necessity of the sanitization of the street children.
